If you're Single and looking for love or married and want to keep the flame burning, you can apply basic Feng Shui principles to assess your love corner, harmonize the romantic energy, and turn up the dial for the love life you want.

Finding the Love Corner

Your love corner is in the far right corner of your bedroom, based on where you enter the room. There is actually a love corner on every floor of your home, and in every room in the house – not just the bedroom. Check them all out to see what is there!

Assessing the Love Corner

For the most harmonious and auspicious energy, look for and correct the following situations:

- 1) Look at the art work in your love corner or bedroom. If there are people in the art, is there a couple or single women?
- 2) Do you have any photos, cards or stuffed animals, etc from ex-lovers?
- 3) Do you have photos of other people in your bedroom?
- 4) If there are candlesticks, is the pair displayed separated by another object or
1. together side-by-side?
- 5) If a clock resides there – is it working or has it stopped?
- 6) Is the corner filled with clutter or free of debris?
- 7) What colors dominate the area?

Creating a Love Altar

1. After you assess the love corner and know what you have to change – do it!
2. Clear clutter, take down or remove in appropriate photos or artwork
3. Think about how to bring the love colors into that space
4. Determine what symbols of love and romance you want to display
5. Purchase or make those symbols and arrange the items on your Love Altar
6. Look at your altar upon waking and before sleep to reinforce your desire and belief – that love is possible or that love and romance are alive in your life
